GLADIOLI

Retail Quantities at Less Than Wholesale Prices

Goshen, Ind., March 15, 1923.

DEAR FLOWER FRIEND:—

For the past several years I have been supplying seedsmen and commercial growers with my new Gladioli, but my extensive and rapidly increasing business direct with private homes has decided me to discontinue the wholesale business and again give my individual patrons my undivided and full attention. Therefore I have decided to give my own direct mail order patrons the advantage and benefit of less than wholesale prices for the remainder of the season on retail quantities to close out quickly what stocks I have left.

From the following lists you may select whatever varieties you should like at way below the wholesale prices; but please order at once, as this surplus will soon be sold out.

You cannot afford to miss this chance to fill your garden with these wonderful new Gladioli the coming summer. They are so easy to grow and will give you greater pleasure from the investment than any other flower you can buy.

The varieties listed on the following pages will cost you only one-half the prices given here, plus one-half cent for each bulb for transportation charges.

Following each name I have given the page in my 1923 catalog on which descriptions are given. Please read carefully the instructions on page 7 of this list before ordering, to help avoid any mistakes or disappointment.

Thanking all my friends and patrons for their many kind words, and orders, which have been so helpful in carrying the fame of these wonderful new Gladioli to every quarter of the world, I am

Sincerely yours,

A. E. Anderson.

Please Read These Notes Before Ordering

This offer does not apply to orders sent previously.

Send orders early to be more certain of getting all varieties wanted. Late orders coming during our planting season may be delayed a few days. Please use the blue order blank enclosed for ordering from this list. I will appreciate this.

Add one-half cent per bulb for bulbs ordered from this list for transportation charges. Safe arrival of bulbs is guaranteed to any point within the United States and Canada.

Remittances must accompany all orders. Send bank draft, express or postal money order, or, if more convenient for you, we will accept your personal check. Unused U. S. stamps will be accepted in payment of orders amounting to less than $1.00. Remittances for more than $1.00 cannot be accepted in stamps. If sent, I will be obliged to return them.

REFERENCES. Those who may not know me, I refer by special permission to the following Goshen banks: The City National Bank and the Salem Bank and Trust Co. Also see R. G. Dunn & Co. and Bradstreet's Commercial Reports.

SUBSTITUTION. If any varieties are out of stock when your order is received, I will substitute a similar or more expensive variety. If this is not satisfactory, please advise when ordering.

SUBSTITUTION IN COLLECTIONS. I reserve the right to substitute when out of a variety offered in any of the collections. The stocks are not of the same size and late in the season some may be entirely exhausted when your order arrives.

Do not hesitate to send small orders, even if but for a single bulb. I want to help the smallest grower or beginner.

QUALITY. As the originator of the Ruffled Gladioli, I am in a position to offer my customers a far larger and better collection of these beautiful new types than any other grower whose varieties of this form have been produced from mine. As all the varieties listed are good to very good propagators, my customers can be assured of full value. Even though you may think some of the prices a little high, the increase, if cared for, in two years makes the first cost insignificant.

Don't forget that the children will enjoy a few of our wonderful gladioli for their garden. Have you thought of teaching them the art of making the home and its surroundings beautiful? It will prove very valuable to them later in life.

Please do not order any varieties not included in this list on the terms of this offer. Varieties not contained herein and listed in my general catalog can only be furnished at regular catalog prices. If your order contains any such, we will substitute something else instead of same or greater value.

For cultural directions, see pages 51, 52 and 53 of general catalog.

Orders not accompanied by cash cannot be answered, as my time does not permit, being rushed at this season with thousands of orders, correspondence, etc.

Address order with remittance to
